Greeting and Blessing:

I respectfully urge you to dismantle Operation Warp Speed today.

Far more dangerous to human life than any virus is the accumulation of power in government. We see this unfolding now in America and around the world.

Operation Warp Speed establishes a military operational framework in the civilian sphere. Operation Warp Speed promotes the genetic code injection (“GCI”) (uses the injection of a genetic code to trick the cells genetic mechanisms to present the cell for attack by the immune system and not a vaccine in the traditional sense) and establishes a framework for direct “pharm to arm” distribution and injection.

As has become clear, the public health officials do not intend the GCI to relieve Americans of concealing their faces, social avoidance, family separation, frequent medical testing, reporting on the identities of everyone who was in close contact, quarantines, restricting or eliminating prayer, and putting employees and businesses out of work. Already the public health message is that the GCI do not work in stopping transmission and may not work against multiple new “strains.” At best, it appears that the GCI will only be categorized as effective for six months, if other governments’ six-month green passport is any indication.

Thus, America is invited to an eternity of lockdowns, religious, business, social and family disruptions and repeated and frequent genetic code injections. An era of literal spiritual, mental, emotional and physical slavery.

Already we see the expanding reach of public health and the exclusion from society of those who do their own research and reach their own conclusions. Those who do not agree with the public health mandates need not run for Congress since they are not allowed to speak in Congress without a mask to cover their face, cannot fly, and cannot shop in many places, among many other exclusions. Perfectly healthy people cannot visit their family in hospitals and nursing homes, condemning them to a death of loneliness and abandonment.

And now the Centers for Disease Control wants to bar all air travelers, American citizens included, from returning to the United States unless they prove their health according to arbitrary standards created by the CDC. This will later be extended to domestic travel using the excuse of new strains and mutations. And then, proof of a recent GCI will be needed to travel both internationally and domestically.

Not only are thoughtful and independent-thinking Americans excluded from regular life and living activities, but the latest public health messaging identifies them as the enemy. Not just because in living a normal life they are portrayed as a danger to the public health, but now the new message is that only those who seek to harm America would object to the widespread adoption of the GCI defined as 'necessary' to re-open the economy. This is the result of the phony dialectic that the economy must be closed if there is no GCI and can only be opened if the GCI public health lifestyle is widely adopted. That is a phony dialectic. Unfortunately, desperate for normalcy, many Americans buy it rather than realizing that the public health decrees are the source of the problem. Not only can life be lived normally without the GCI, but as the public health messaging now reveals, even with the GCI there will not be a normal life. So the GCI is not the answer. Life free of the public health tyranny is the answer.

In the eternal Divine guidance of this week's Torah portion in the Book of Exodus (10:3), Moses presents Pharaoh with the opportunity to set the Jewish People free from slavery. He famously declares in the name of G-d Almighty, "Let My people go that they may serve Me." Today, the same applies except that the call is to let all humanity go from the public health enslavement. The proper environment for the service of G-d Almighty, what the Declaration of Independence calls the pursuit of happiness, is reached when there is bountiful life and liberty.

Mr. President and Mr. Vice-President, you have the opportunity to undo the public health bondage now before G-d forbid it imposes the greatest possible suffering upon humanity. In the last 100 years, over 500 million human beings were eliminated at the hands of government, often in the name of public health. Government is the greatest present danger.

Please dismantle Operation Warp Speed.

May G-d Almighty bless you and your families, this great country and all humanity with the peace and prosperity that flows from trust in G-d Almighty.

With esteem and blessing,

Yitzchok Dovid Smith
